

MEDIATION SKILL TRAINING

Event Description

Mediation skill training course is an one-day programme of comprehensive tuition and participation in effective dispute resolution where participants are trained in the skills needed for effective mediation of commercial disputes.

This training, organized in cooperation with Australian Dispute Resolution Centre – ADRC, will help delegates to gain an understanding of the mediation process and the basic skills for mediation. Each delegate will be granted two certificates, one from ADRC and another from VBLC, after finishing the training.

This course is of value to professionals and managers in organisations, lawyers and those wishing to introduce mediation to handle workplace conflict swiftly and cost effectively.
